Chapter 5

Imagine that you are write a peer advice columnist. Read the letter below and then write a response offering advice to the letter writer.

Dear Peer Adviser,

I have trouble controlling my temper and seem to have little patience for others. My little brother always wants me to read him the same book over and over again. One of my friends is always late when we are going somewhere. This makes me angry! What advice can you give to help me become a more patient person?

Irritated in Indiana

Dear Irritated in Indiana,

Living the Faith Makes a Difference

How can being patient with yourself and others help you to live your Catholic faith?
