

Inviting a Guest

Talk to your pastor or pastoral minister to get the name of a person who brings Eucharist to sick or homebound parishioners. Explain that you would like this person to speak to your group of children.

Ask the guest to explain to the children what they do and what they enjoy about their ministry.

Be sure to provide time for the children to ask questions. You might like to help them prepare some questions in advance.