

Inviting a Guest from a Religious Community

1. If you do not have any vowed religious in your school or parish, speak to a parish staff person or your local diocesan office to find out what religious communities are in your area.
2. Invite the guest to tell the children about their call, their experience in religious life, the prayer life of the community, and the importance of prayer.
Be sure to invite the children to ask questions.