

Writing Letters Like Paul

1. Have students work in pairs. One student will be Paul and the other will be the scribe.
2. Have “Paul” decide on a topic and main ideas for a letter.
3. The “scribe” should then write the letter.
4. “Paul” should take the finished letter from the scribe and add his or her own personal greeting.

Invite the students to share their combined effort with the class.