

Inviting a Guest

1. Talk to your pastor or liturgist to find out the name of someone who would be comfortable talking with children about Marian devotion.
2. Explain to the guest that the children are learning about Mary and the way Catholics express their devotion to Mary. Ask the guest to share why their personal devotion to Mary is important for them.
3. You might like to invite the guest to lead the children in one decade of the rosary.