

Design a Church Bulletin

Imagine that you have been asked to create a new design for the cover of your church's bulletin. To prepare, think about what you and your family like about your parish. Invite family members to share with you what they like about gathering at your church. Design the bulletin cover below to show what is special about your parish.
