

Interviewing Living Saints

1. Explain that the children are going to interview a person of faith whom they believe lives a life of holiness, putting their faith in to action.
2. Together brainstorm a list of interview questions to use.
3. Give the children a period of time to conduct their interviews.
4. Provide time for the children to share their interviews with the rest of the group.