

Being Peacemakers

1. Explain to the children that they are going to design role-plays about being peacemakers.
2. Divide the children into pairs.
3. Point out the five steps for terminating violence in problem solving.
4. Invite each pair to create a role-play for peacefully resolving a conflict that includes all five steps. Provide time for each pair to show their role-ply to the rest of the group.