

Jesus Loves All Children

Invite a family member to help you learn about children from another country. Choose one country to investigate together and use the Internet or library to find the answers to the questions below.

Who cares for the children?

What do the children wear?

What do the children eat?

Do the children go to school?

What have I learned about children from this country?
